POPULAR BALLADEER ENGELBERT HUMPERDINCK TO PERFORM AT CHUMASH CASINO RESORT

SANTA YNEZ, CA – January 22, 2024 – British pop singer Engelbert Humperdinck, whose extensive catalog of popular hits includes “Release Me” and “A Man Without Love,” will bring his “The Last Waltz, Farewell Tour” to the Samala Showroom at 8 p.m. on Friday, February 9 at the Chumash Casino Resort. Tickets for the show are $39, $49, $59, $64 and $69.

With a career spanning over 50 years, Humperdinck has sold more than 140 million records. His accolades also include 65 gold albums, 35 platinum albums, four Grammy nominations, a Golden Globe, and stars on the Hollywood Walk of Fame, Las Vegas Walk of Fame and Leicester Walk of Fame.

Humperdinck has recorded everything from romantic ballads to movie theme songs, disco, rock and even gospel. His unique voice and charm have captivated millions of fans around the globe.

He began his career in 1959 when he was scouted after winning a talent contest. The same year, he released his first debut single, “Crazy Bells,” and became part of a touring show called “The Big Beat Show” while continuing to work in nightclubs.

In 1967, Humperdinck reached international prominence with his single, "Release Me," which reached No. 1 on the UK Singles Chart. He scored further major hits in rapid succession, including "There Goes My Everything" and "The Last Waltz" (1967), "Am I That Easy to Forget" (1968) and "A Man Without Love" (1968). Two of his singles were among the best-selling of the 1960s in the United Kingdom.

In the following decades, Humperdinck continued to tour the world and perform his iconic hits to sold-out crowds. He has even struck a chord with the younger generation, causing his social media presence and YouTube music videos to skyrocket in the millions of views. Humperdinck's hit song "A Man Without Love" was featured in Marvel's "Moon Knight" Disney+ series. In Sony Pictures' breakout film "Bullet Train," Humperdinck performs "I'm Forever Blowing Bubbles," and in Netflix's "Umbrella Academy," his "Quando, Quando, Quando" is heard.

Don't miss an opportunity to hear Humperdinck's greatest hits performed live during his final tour in one of the most popular entertainment venues in Santa Barbara County.

Located on Highway 246 in Santa Ynez, California, the Chumash Casino Resort is an age 21-and-older venue. Tickets for all events are available at The CLUB at Chumash or online at www.chumashcasino.com.
